Topic:

Successful Applications: Case Studies from the Class of 2021

Come hear former Admission Officers analyse student case studies with their insider knowledge. Early application results are particularly important because they give indications of how colleges will value and weight different criteria during the Pandemic. For the Class of 2022, it could be an indicator of things like:

- Changing Landscape of Standardised Tests and Importance of APs
- What are the factors to consider if applying early and many more!
